Topics

Workplace Health and Safety

This topic aims to introduce you to the important role played by a property practitioner across a broad spectrum of work. It is a must in addressing personal health and safety, as well as impacting health and safety issues on clients, customers and other staff.

The course also introduces you to the new approved code of practice under section 274 of the Work Health and Safety Act (the WHS Act) and is critically important to the role of managing work and health and safety risks of premises and estates.

The WHS Act and Regulations require persons who have a duty to ensure health and safety to 'manage risks' by eliminating health and safety risks so far as is reasonably practicable. The course book will cover the trade related issues and the risk management approach used, to give delegates the confidence they need in tackling safety, theft and security issues quickly, efficiently and economically.

Note: This topic makes up 1.5 hours of CPD activity (without an assessment)

Ethics & Professional Responsibility

This topic gives an insight into the ethical and professional conduct standards that go with the legal responsibilities required within the property industry, very much centred around disclosure, bribes, political donations, kickbacks & human behaviour. We emphasise best practice using case study examples, identifying what is legal, what is ethical, while raising awareness to poor ethical behaviour and the likely outcomes which come from this.

Supervision Requirements

The supervision requirements are contained in a resource guide. They set out the requirements for proper supervision of a business, including the steps they must take to prevent fraud, under quoting and misrepresentation.

These requirements include:

- supervision of employees engaged in the business
- establishment of procedures designed to ensure that the provisions of the Act and Regulation and other relevant laws are complied with, and monitoring employees' conduct to ensure that those procedures are being followed.

If you need clarification on the supervision requirements, this will be the opportunity to resolve any problems and implement changes.

Intellectual Property Issues in Business Operations

This topic examines key aspects on Australian Intellectual Property Law and issues in the creative process of advertising - including trademarks, copyrights, patents, registered designs and passing off.
